The Best Shaved Ice Desserts in the Country

By: Samantha Lande

Move over, ice cream and ice pops — shaved ice is the cool-me-down treat popping up from coast to coast.

Asbury Park, New Jersey: Watermelon Shave Ice at Betty's Ice Box

There's nothing like a cool treat while you're strolling the boardwalk, which makes Betty's the perfect stop for shaved ice, ice cream and popsicles. A favorite is the brightly hued watermelon shaved ice dessert, which is served in a half of a small watermelon. The shaved ice lies on top of some vanilla soft serve and chunks of fresh watermelon, and is dotted with mini chocolate chips to make it look like the real thing (and make for an Instagrammable moment!).
